TD Music Scholarship Application

Young Voices Toronto is dedicated to offering an outstanding musical education to all children, regardless of financial situation. Thanks to our sponsor, TD Bank, we are able to offer a limited number of TD Music Scholarships in order to provide financial support to those families who demonstrate financial need. Please note: families with an annual household income of more than $35,000 may be ineligible.

In order to apply for a TD Music Scholarship, please submit the completed application along with a cover letter explaining your need for a scholarship and the supporting documents to:

Attention: Board of Directors

Financial Commitment

We will provide a TD Music Scholarship to a maximum of 80% of tuition fees. We expect all choir families to commit to paying for the remaining choir tuition and any associated fees. By signing this application, you agree to pay for the remaining fees. Failure to submit payment by June 30, 2018 may result in your account being sent to the Small Claims Court.

Volunteering/Fundraising Commitment

We expect all choir families to contribute to the Choir community through volunteering and fundraising. Upon approval of your TD Music Scholars application, the Board of Directors will expect you to take a lead role in volunteering and fundraising, by volunteering no less than 15 hours over the year and by exceeding the fundraising commitment set out for your choir division. By signing below, you are indicating your understanding of this expectation.

I/We certify that the statements on this application form and in the attached documents are true and complete to the best of my/our knowledge. I/We understand financial commitment expected of TD Music Scholars recipients.
